THE DAY IN THE COTTON MARKET

Quotations From All Markets Furnished The Caller Daily By The Corpus Christi Cotton Exchange, Nueces Hotel Building.

Cables from Liverpool came in about as expected and the American markets opened from four to six points higher, but quickly lost the advance on the expectation of possibility of showers in Texas and sold down about twenty-eight points from the high mark registered at the opening.

Watkins Brown makes the condition of the crop 75-against 75- rain season.

The government estimates the increase in fertilizer as 25 per cent. of what was used last year.

Rain is going to be a big factor in the market and it realized on the forecast of probable showers in Texas will likely have the effect of breaking the market. And with the political situation in Europe creating suspense the market is likely to remain quiet.
